Parking

Riverside Drive will be closed by the police and should not be used as a method of entry. You can walk supplies in from any entrance to the park. Cabrini Boulevard and Riverside Drive, on the southern edge of Fort Tryon Park, will be closed for the entire day. Performers can use these streets to load in and load out but we need you moved by 9:30AM to clear the parade route. Limited, free parking is available at the park concession building near the Margaret Corbin Circle entrance and all around The Met Cloisters.

PARK MAP INCLUDING SUBWAY AND PARKING

Getting to Medieval Festival at Fort Tryon Park:

Fort Tryon Park is a public New York City park. It extends from 192nd Street and Fort Washington Avenue northward to Riverside Drive near 200th Street. It is framed on the west by the West Side Highway and to the east by Broadway.

Subway

Take the A train to 190th Street. Take the elevator and stairs up to Fort Washington Avenue and walk north (to your right as you come up the stairs from the station). The tall stone pillars in Margaret Corbin Circle mark the southern entrance to the park, and the Heather Garden is just inside. The elevators at the 190th Street A train station have re-opened!

Bus

Take the M4 or M98 bus north to its last stop, which will be marked either "192nd Street," "190th Street," "Cloisters," or "Margaret Corbin Circle." Please ask the bus driver if the bus goes to Fort Tryon Park. The bus will leave you at the park's southern entrance.

Car

From Manhattan and Brooklyn, Queens, or Long Island via the Triborough (RFK) Bridge or 59th Street (Edward Koch Queensboro) Bridges and the Midtown Tunnel, take the FDR/Harlem River Drive north to the Amsterdam Avenue/George Washington Bridge exit. At the light, make a right onto Amsterdam Avenue. Proceed north to 179th Street. Make a left onto 179th Street and proceed west to Fort Washington Avenue. At Fort Washington Avenue, turn right and proceed north to Margaret Corbin Circle. This is the southern entrance to Fort Tryon Park.

From Westchester County and parts of Connecticut, take the Henry Hudson Parkway South to the exit for Riverside Drive. Stay to the left in the exit lane. At the stop sign, make a left onto Riverside Drive. Stay in the left lane on Riverside Drive, which turns back into the Henry Hudson Parkway northbound. Take Fort Tryon Park Exit, the next exit off of the highway. From Long Island, Queens (via the Whitestone or Throgs Neck Bridges) or Connecticut, take the Cross-Bronx Expressway to the last exit in New York (Henry Hudson Parkway South–181st Street, Exit 1). Stay to the right in the exit lane until you come to the stoplight. At the light, take a right onto 181st Street. Make the first left off of 181st Street onto Cabrini Boulevard. Follow Cabrini Boulevard to its northern terminus, which is Margaret Corbin Circle. Limited, free parking is available at the park concession building near the Margaret Corbin Circle entrance and all around The Met Cloisters.

Emergency Medical Facilities, First Aid and Lost & Found
Emergency Medical Technicians and ambulances (denoted by the EMT symbols on the map) are located in two spots, one just south of the Cloisters and Riverside Market, the other is located in the traffic circle near the Front Gate.

In the event of a serious injury, lost child or other emergency, please call 911 and / or notify any of the uniformed police officers at the festival.

The Lost and Found is located at the Information Booth opposite the Tournament (Jousting) Field.

Ye Prives: Also known as toilets are located in four locations; at the park entrance, just north of the Centercheap Green Stage, just north of the Pageant Wagon Stage, and in the parking area south of the Cloisters Museum (between the Tournament Field and Riverside Market).

Food and Drinks: There are three food areas - the first is in the Centercheap opposite Unicorn Forum, the second is just south of the Pageant Wagon, and the third is the Triangle Pub, located opposite the tournament field.
